

The Newcastle Weekly Chronicle

Supplement

{ REGISTERED FOR TRANSMISSION ABROAD. }

PRICE { WITH WEEKLY
CHRONICLE } TWOPENCE.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1893.

No. 6,708.

stray cowboy sighted him, and supposing him to be with him in England. He arrived at Egremont Castle ground apartment in the western wing of Queensberry House, the windows of which were boarded up, to tradition; but we greatly doubt its accuracy. Kitty was frivolous, but not deliberately wicked. Be it as it may, the marriage of Lord Drumhargh with Lady Kitty place at the least, the entire assembly, standing made a lane for me as if they entertained a great lord. Whilst he was seated enjoying the banquet and

